

Jon Maner

Senior Vice President, Beaumont Physician Partners & Executive Director, Beaumont Medical Group

Beaumont

Jonathan Maner is senior vice president of Beaumont Physician Partners and executive director of Beaumont Medical Group. Beaumont Health is Michigan's largest health care system, based on inpatient admissions and net patient revenue.

Jonathan's responsibilities include optimizing the performance of Beaumont Medical Group in the areas of clinical care delivery, operational efficiency, financial stewardship, provider and colleague satisfaction. He also leads the integration of the medical group into Beaumont's larger strategic plans.

Prior to joining Beaumont, Maner has 20 years' experience leading medical groups across the country for national systems including Community Health in Nashville, Tennessee and Trinity Health in Livonia, Michigan.

He came to Beaumont from the Trinity Health System Office Physician Network Organization, where he served as vice president of operational excellence since 2015. At Trinity, he led the operational and financial transformation of the physician organization, which spans 22 states and includes about 1,700 practices with 7,000 physicians.

Prior to that, he served as the senior vice president of physician services for the Trinity Health - St. Mary Physician Group.

Maner served in the United States Army for nearly 10 years in both the 101st Airborne Division and the 10th Mountain Division. He received his degree in business administration from Capella University in Minneapolis, Minn.

Beaumont Health is a not-for-profit organization formed in 2014 to provide patients with greater access to compassionate, extraordinary care, no matter where they live in Southeast Michigan. It consists of eight hospitals with 3,429 beds, 145 outpatient sites, nearly 5,000 physicians, 38,000 employees and 3,500 volunteers. In 2018, the organization had $4.7 billion in net revenue with nearly 178,000 inpatient discharges, 572,000 emergency visits and 18,000 births. Learn more at Beaumont.org.
